despite about 15 serious attempts to get in touch with the current registrant of the xoops.org domain - onokazu who started the XOOPS project with a few enthusiastic people and who now is a leading part of the XoopsCube project- the XOOPS Foundation hasn't been able to arrange the transfer of the domain to the Foundation as to secure it for the

XOOPS
project and
its community.

Hello Herko.
My name is Crispin
Moorey (sailjapan on XOOPS.org)
and I work on the Community
Coordination
team that
was recently
founded.
I read that
the XOOPS
Foundation is having
trouble
getting a
response
from Ono
san. I have a suggestion. I
live in Japan,
and the
country is not so big. If you'd like me
to pay him a
visit and
plead our
case, I'd be happy to do
so. I think I've found
how to
contact him
(via XoopsCube)
though once
my purpose
is made
plain, there is
of course the chance that I will meet the
same wall of
silence that
you and your
colleagues
have.
None the less, I would be willing to
travel and

meet him if
a) he agrees
to meet me,
and b) if I
have the
permission
and a set of
clear
instructions
from the
foundation.

If I should be talking to
someone else
about this, I
would ask
that you tell
me who, and
respectfully
ask you not to pass on
this
information
to anyone
else, be this
the case.

If you are the
right person
for me to be
talking to,
you can
reach me on
crispin@
moorey.net

Respectfully,

C. Moorey
